

Subject: Time line for rejoining of MBBS students:

(i) 1st Prof, MBBS, students:

- (a) On 11.01.21 at 2.30 pm (online) the Dean and the three Heads of Departments, will address the students to apprise them regarding the manner in which the classes will be conducted and how to maintain the desired safety protocols.(link will be sent)
- (b) Students will be divided into three groups and rotation will be done between the three departments to complete the syllabus and prepare them for the 1st prof examination.
- (c) Students will join on 14.01.2021, one week after the order has been received for physical classes.
- (d) Each department will upload the timetable on the college website for the information of the students.
- (e) The Sent up exams will be conducted by individual departments due to paucity of time.
- (f) The university exam for the 1st prof will be from February as per NMC guide lines. university will be declaring the dates soon.

(ii) Final MBBS part II : students to join on 29.01.21, by the time LN hospital would have stated taking in indoor patients.

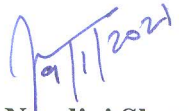

(iii) Final MBBS Part I : students to join on 8.02.2021,

- (a) The students can attend Community Medicine and Ophthalmology departments, initially , and then join the ENT Department at a later date , i.e as and when patients are admitted, for their clinical classes.

(iv) Second Prof: Students to join on 01.02.2021:

- (b) These students will attend the core subjects of Pathology, Pharmacology, Microbiology and Forensic medicine.
- (c) They will not be posted in clinical departments till they complete their university exam.

Note: The students have to get the RTPCR test done 48 hours before joining the classes. They will report alongwith the Negative report of the RTPCR test . In case, any student reports without an RTPCR report, they will be isolated and tested by the college, and will be permitted to report to the college only after having a negative RTPCR Report.

(Dr Nandini Sharma)
DEAN